

Extension of Time for Re-registration of companies and business names

30 July 2021

In brief

This Bulletin includes brief details in relation to the following:

- Extension of the final date to 31 December 2021 for the re-registration of companies and businesses.

In detail

1. Extension of final date for re-registration

The final date by which companies and business must re-register with the Registrar of Companies as required under the Fiji Companies Act has been further extended as follows:

- Companies – 31 December 2021;
- Foreign companies – 31 December 2021; and
- Business names – 31 December 2021.

Please ensure that applications for re-registrations are submitted by the above final dates via the Digicel Portal to avoid deregistration.

Failure to properly re-register could have major implications for companies / businesses as noted in our earlier Bulletins.
