- (a) the Company’s ordinary business includes providing finance; and
- (b) the security is taken in the ordinary course of that business and on ordinary commercial terms.

(4) If a Company acquires shares in itself because it exercises rights under a security permitted by subsection (2) or (3), then, within the following 12 months, the Company must cease to hold those shares or units of Shares and upon application by the Company before the end of the period, the Registrar may extend this period of 12 months.

(5) Any voting rights attached to the shares cannot be exercised while the Company continues to hold them.

(6) If, at the end of the 12 months or extended period, the Company still holds any of the shares, the Company commits an offence for each day while that situation continues.

(7) This section shall not prevent a Subsidiary which was, immediately before 1 January, 1984, a Member of its Holding Company from continuing to be a Member but, the Subsidiary shall have no right to vote at meetings of the Holding Company or any class of Members of the Holding Company.

Issuing or transferring shares to controlled entity

- (a) the issue or transfer is to the entity as a personal representative; or
- (b) the issue or transfer is to the entity as trustee and neither the Company nor any entity it Controls has a beneficial interest in the trust.

(2) The Registrar may exempt a Company in writing and subject to such conditions the Registrar deems appropriate, from the operation of this section.

Company controlling entity that holds shares in it

230.—(1) If a Company obtains Control of an entity that holds shares in the Company, then, within 12 months after it occurs either the—

- (a) entity must cease to hold the shares; or
- (b) Company must cease to Control the entity.

(2) The Registrar may extend the period of 12 months under subsection (1) if the Company applies for the extension before the end of the period.

(3) Any voting rights attached to the shares cannot be exercised while the Company continues to control the entity.

(4) If, at the end of the 12 months or the extended period, the Company still controls the entity and the entity still holds the shares, the Company commits an offence for each day while that situation continues.

(5) This section does not apply to shares if—

- (a) they are held by the entity as a personal representative;
- (b) they are held by the entity as trustee and neither the Company nor any entity it Controls has a beneficial interest in the trust, other than a beneficial interest that satisfies these conditions—
 - (i) the interest arises from a security given for the purposes of a transaction entered into in the ordinary course of business in connection with providing finance; and
 - (ii) that transaction was not entered into with a Related Body Corporate of the Company or an entity it controls.

(6) A contravention of this section does not affect the validity of any transaction.

Consequences of failing to comply with section 227 or 228

231.—(1) If a Company contravenes section 227 or 228—

- (a) the contravention does not affect the validity of the acquisition or security or of any contract or transaction connected with it; and

232. A Company may not provide financial assistance to a person to acquire shares in the Company or a Holding Company of the Company unless permitted by this Division.

Member approval

233.—(1) Financial assistance may be given to a person to acquire shares in a Company if Member approval for financial assistance by a Company is given by a resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Company, with no votes being cast in favour of the resolution by the person acquiring the Shares or units of Shares or by a Related Body Corporate.

(2) If the Company is a Subsidiary of a Listed Company immediately after the acquisition referred to in section 232 occurs, the financial assistance must also be approved by Special Resolution passed at a General Meeting of that Company.

(3) If, immediately after the acquisition, the Company will have a Holding Company that—

(a) is a Company but not Listed; and

(b) is not itself a Subsidiary of a Company,

the financial assistance must also be approved by a Special Resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Company that will be the Holding Company.

(4) A Company or other body that calls a meeting for the purpose of subsection (1), (2) or (3) must include with the notice of the meeting a statement setting out all the information known to the Company or body that is material to the decision on how to vote on the resolution.

(5) However, the Company or body does not have to disclose information if it would be unreasonable to require the Company or body to do so because the Company or body had previously disclosed the information to its Members.

(6) Before the notice of a meeting for the purpose of subsection (1), (2) or (3) is sent to Members of a Company and at least 14 days before giving the financial assistance, the Company must lodge, using the prescribed form, with the Registrar a copy of—

(a) the notice of the meeting; and

(b) any documents relating to the financial assistance that will accompany the notice of the meeting sent to the Members.

(b) entering into an agreement with a person under which the person may make payments to the Company on shares by instalments; or

- (a) the Company's ordinary business includes providing finance; and
- (b) the financial assistance is given in the ordinary course of that business and on ordinary commercial terms.

(3) Financial assistance is exempted from section 232 if it is given under an Employee Share Scheme that has been approved by—

- (a) a resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Company;
- (b) if the Company is a Subsidiary of a Listed Company—a resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Listed Company; and
- (c) if paragraph (b) does not apply but the Company has a Holding Company that is a Company and that is not itself a Subsidiary of a Company – a resolution passed at a General Meeting of that Holding Company.

(4) The following types of financial assistance are exempted from section 232—

- (a) a reduction of share capital in accordance with Part 18;
- (b) a Buy-back in accordance with Part 18;

Consequences of failing to comply with section 232

- (a) the contravention does not affect the validity of the financial assistance or of any contract or transaction connected with it; and
- (b) the Company shall not be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who is involved in a Company's contravention of section 232 contravenes this subsection and commits an offence if the involvement is dishonest.

General duties still apply

(4) If at any time all the issued shares in a Company, or all the issued shares in a Company of a particular class are Listed on a Securities Exchange which has a Central Depository or an electronic trading platform which allows for the settlement of Listed Securities transactions or dealings in Listed Securities without the physical delivery of scrips, the Company is not required to issue a Share certificate in respect of any of those Shares.

- 241.—(1) This Part applies to—
- (a) shares in a Company;
 - (b) Debentures of a Company; and
 - (c) interests in a Managed Investment Scheme (“Specified Securities”).
- (2) This section applies to an Interest in a Managed Investment Scheme as if—

Instrument of transfer

242.—(1) Notwithstanding—

- (a) anything in its Articles of Association; or
- (b) anything in a deed relating to Debentures, subject to subsection (3) a Company shall only register a transfer of Specified Securities if a proper instrument of transfer has been delivered to the Company.

(2) An instrument of transfer is not a proper instrument of transfer for the purposes of subsection (1) if it does not show the details, specified in regulations made under this Act, in relation to the Company concerned.

(3) Subsection (1) does not prejudice the power of the Company to register, as the holder of Specified Securities, a person to whom the right to the Specified Securities has devolved by will or by operation of law.

(4) An instrument of transfer will be deemed to be properly executed by the transferor or transferee where it is executed by the holder of a Securities Industry Licence on behalf of the transferor or transferee, provided the same holder of a Securities Industry Licence does not execute the instrument of transfer on behalf of both the transferor and transferee.

(5) Subsections (6) to (12) deal with a transfer of a Specified Security of a deceased holder by the deceased holder's personal representative and they deal with the transfer differently depending on whether the personal representative is a local representative or not.

(6) The personal representative is a local representative if the representative is duly constituted as a personal representative under the laws of Fiji.

(7) If the personal representative is a local representative, a transfer of the Specified Security by the representative is as valid as if the representative had been registered as the holder of the Specified Security at the time when the instrument of transfer was executed.

(8) If—

- (a) the personal representative is not a local representative;
- (b) the representative—
 - (i) executes an instrument of transfer of the Specified Security to the representative or to another person;
 - (ii) delivers the instrument to the Company; and
 - (iii) delivers to the Company with the instrument a statement in writing made by the representative to the effect that, to the best of the representative's knowledge, information and belief, no grant of representation of the estate of the deceased holder has been applied for or made in Fiji and no application for such a grant will be made; and

- (c) the statement is made within 3 months immediately before the date on which the statement is delivered to the Company, the Company must, subject to subsection (9), register the transfer and pay to the representative any dividends or other money accrued in respect of the Specified Security up to the time when the instrument was executed.

(9) Subsection (8) does not operate so as to require the Company to do anything that it would not have been required to do if the personal representative were a local representative.

(10) A transfer or payment made under subsection (8) and a receipt or acknowledgment of such a payment is, for all purposes, as valid and effectual as if the personal representative were a local representative.

(11) For the purposes of this section, an application by a personal representative of a dead person for registration as the holder of a security in place of the dead person is taken to be an instrument of transfer effecting a transfer of the security to the personal representative.

(12) Notwithstanding—

- (a) anything in its Articles of Association; or
(b) in a deed relating to Debentures,

the production to a Company of a document that is, under the laws of Fiji, sufficient evidence of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, of a dead person having been granted to a person, is sufficient evidence of the grant for the purposes of the Company.

Occupation need not appear in transfer document, register etc.

243.—(1) A document transferring Specified Securities need not state the occupation of the transferor or transferee and, if it is signed by a person, the signature need not be witnessed.

(2) The omission from a register, certificate, document transferring Specified Securities or other document relating to a security, of a statement of the occupation of a person who is, or is entitled to be, registered as the holder of the security does not breach any law, Articles of Association, trust deed or other document relating to the Specified Securities.

Registration of transfer at request of transferor

244.—(1) A written application by the transferor of a Specified Security of a Company for the transferee's name to be entered in the appropriate register is as effective, for the purposes of the Company, as if it were an application by the transferee.

(2) An application under subsection (1) is subject to the same conditions as it would be if it had been made by the transferee.

(3) If the transferor of a Specified Security of a Company requests the Company in writing to do so, the Company must, by written notice, require a person who has possession, custody or control of either or both of the following—

- (a) any title documents for the Specified Security;
- (b) the instrument of transfer of the Specified Security, to bring it or deliver them to the Registered Office of the Company within a specified period being not less than 7 days and not more than 28 days after the date of the notice, to have the document cancelled or rectified and the transfer registered or otherwise dealt with.

(4) If a person refuses or fails to comply with a notice given under subsection (3), the transferor may apply to the Court for the issue of a summons for that person to appear before the Court and show cause why the documents mentioned in the notice should not be delivered up or produced as required by the notice.

(5) The Court may—

- (a) if the person appears,—
 - (i) examine the person upon oath or affirmation; and
 - (ii) receive other evidence;
- (b) if the person does not appear after being duly served with the summons— receive evidence in the person's absence; and
- (c) in either case order the person to deliver up such documents to the Company upon such terms or conditions as the Court considers just and reasonable.

(6) The costs of the summons and of proceedings on the summons are at the discretion of the Court.

(7) Lists of documents required to be brought in under subsection (3) but not brought in accordance with a requirement made under subsection (3) or delivered up in accordance with an order under subsection (4) must be—

- (a) exhibited in the office of the Company; and
- (b) advertised in the Gazette and in such newspapers and at such times as the Company thinks fit.

Notice of refusal to register transfer

245. If a Company refuses to register a transfer of a Specified Security of the Company, it must, within 60 days after the date on which the transfer was lodged with it, give the transferee notice of the refusal.

Remedy for refusal to register transfer or transmission

246.—(1) If a person—

- (a) refuses or fails to register; or

- (b) refuses or fails to give his or her consent or approval to the registration of a transfer or transmission of Specified Securities of the Company, the transferee or transmittee may apply to the Court for an order under this section.

(2) If the Court is satisfied on the application that the refusal or failure was without just cause, the Court may—

- (a) order that the transfer or transmission be registered; or
- (b) make such other order as it thinks just and reasonable, including but not limited to—
 - (i) in the case of a transfer or transmission of shares – an order providing for the purchase of the shares by a specified Member of the Company or by the Company; and
 - (ii) in the case of a purchase by the Company – an order providing for the reduction accordingly of the capital of the Company.

Certification of transfers

247.—(1) The certification by a Company of an instrument of transfer of Specified Securities of the Company—

- (a) is taken as a representation by the Company to any person acting on the faith of the certification that there have been produced to the Company such documents as on the face of them show prima facie title to the Specified Securities in the transferor named in the instrument of transfer; and
- (b) is not taken as a representation that the transferor has any title to the Specified Securities.

(2) If a person acts on the faith of a false certification by a Company made negligently, the Company is under the same liability to the person as if the certification had been made fraudulently.

(3) A certification may be expressed to be limited to 42 days or any longer period from the date of certification and the Company and its Officers and employees are not, in the absence of fraud, liable in respect of the registration of any transfer of Specified Securities comprised in the certification after the end of—

- (a) the period so limited; or
- (b) any extension of that period given by the Company,

if the instrument of transfer has not, within that period, been lodged with the Company for registration.

(4) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) an instrument of transfer shall be taken to be certified if it bears the words “certificate lodged” or words to the like effect;

- (b) the certification of an instrument of transfer is taken to be made by a Company if—
 - (i) the person issuing the instrument is a person authorised to issue certified instruments of transfer on the Company’s behalf; and
 - (ii) the certification is signed by a person authorised to certify transfers on the Company’s behalf or by an Officer of the Company or of a Company so authorised; and
- (c) a certification that purports to be authenticated by a person’s signature or initials whether handwritten or not, is taken to be signed by the person unless it is shown that the signature or initials was not or were not placed there by—
 - (i) the person; and
 - (ii) any other person authorised to use the signature or initials, for the purpose of certifying transfers on the Company’s behalf.

Duties of Company with respect to issue of certificates

248.—(1) Within 28 days after a Company, other than a Listed Company, issues a Specified Security, the Company must—

- (a) subject to the conditions on which the Shares are issued, complete and have ready for delivery to the holder of the Specified Security and the transferee all the appropriate certificates or other title documents in connection with the issue of the Specified Security; and
- (b) unless otherwise instructed by the holder or the transferee, send or deliver the completed certificates or other title documents to—
 - (i) the holder or the transferee, as applicable; or
 - (ii) if the holder or the transferee has instructed the Company in writing to send them to a nominated person – that person.

(2) The Court may make an order directing the Company and any Officer or employee of the Company to remedy the contravention within such period as is specified in the order if—

- (a) subsection (1) applies;
- (b) the Company fails to remedy the contravention within 10 days after the service of the notice; and
- (c) the person entitled to have the documents delivered to him or her applies to the Court for an order under this subsection.

(3) An order under subsection (2) may provide that all costs of, and incidental to, the application are to be borne by—

- (a) the Company; or
- (b) any Officer or employee of the Company who was involved in the contravention, in such proportions as the Court thinks just and reasonable.

PART 21—SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR THE TRANSFER OF SHARES

Rights of trustee of estate of bankrupt Member

249.—(1) If—

- (a) because of the Bankruptcy Act (Cap. 48), a share in a Company, being part of the property of a bankrupt, vests in the trustee of the bankrupt's estate; and
- (b) the bankrupt is the registered holder of that share, this section applies whether or not the trustee has been registered as the holder of the shares.

(2) On producing such information as the Directors of the Company properly require, the trustee is entitled to—

- (a) the same dividends and other benefits; and
- (b) the same rights, for example, but without limitation, rights in relation to—
 - (i) meetings of the Company;
 - (ii) documents, including notices of such meetings;
 - (iii) voting; or
 - (iv) inspection of the Company's records, as the bankrupt would be entitled to if he or she were not a bankrupt.

(3) The trustee has the same rights to—

- (a) transfer the share; and
- (b) require a person to do an act or give a consent in connection with completing or registering a transfer of the Share, as the bankrupt would have if he or she were not a bankrupt.

(4) If the trustee transfers the share, the transfer is as valid as if the trustee had been registered as the holder of the share when the trustee executed the instrument of transfer.

(5) A person or body whose consent or approval is required for the transfer of shares in the Company must not unreasonably withhold consent or approval for the transfer of the shares by the trustee.

(6) If—

- (a) the Company’s Articles of Association require—
 - (i) the share to be offered for purchase to a Member of the Company; or
 - (ii) an invitation to buy the shares to be issued to such a Member; and
- (b) as at the end of a reasonable period after the trustee so offers the shares, or so issues such an invitation, no such Member has agreed to buy the shares from the trustee at a reasonable price, the trustee may sell and transfer the shares to a person other than such a Member.

(7) A provision of the Company’s Articles of Association is void as against the trustee in so far as, apart from this section, it would affect rights attached to the share—

- (a) because the bankrupt is a bankrupt;
- (b) because of some event that led to the bankrupt becoming, or that indicated that the bankrupt was about to become, or might be about to become, a bankrupt; or
- (c) for reasons including a reason referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).

(8) Nothing in this section limits the generality of anything else in it.

(9) This section shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in the Company’s Articles of Association.

Trustee etc. may be registered as owner of shares

250.—(1) A trustee, executor or administrator of the estate of a dead person who was the registered holder of shares may be registered as the holder of the Shares as trustee, executor or administrator of that estate.

(2) A trustee, executor or administrator of the estate of a dead person who was entitled in equity to shares may, with the consent of—

- (a) the Company; and
- (b) the registered holder of the shares,

be registered as the holder of the shares as trustee, executor or administrator of that estate.

(3) If—

- (a) a person (the “administrator”) is appointed, under the laws of Fiji relating to the administration of the estates of persons who, through mental or physical infirmity, are incapable of managing their affairs, to administer the estate of a person who is so incapable; and
- (b) the incapable person is the registered holder of shares, the administrator may be registered as the holder of those shares as administrator of that estate.

(4) If—

- (a) a person (the “administrator”) is appointed, under the laws of Fiji relating to the administration of the estates of persons who, through mental or physical infirmity, are incapable of managing their affairs, to administer the estate of a person who is so incapable; and
- (b) the incapable person is entitled in equity to the shares, the administrator may, with the consent of the Company and of the registered holder of those shares, be registered as the holder of the share as administrator of that estate.

(5) If—

- (a) by virtue of the Bankruptcy Act (Cap. 48), shares, being the Property of a bankrupt, vest in the trustee in bankruptcy; and
- (b) the bankrupt is the registered holder of those shares, the trustee may be registered as the holder of that Share.

(6) A person registered under subsections (1), (2), (3), (4) or (5) is, while registered as mentioned in that subsection—

- (a) subject to the same liabilities in respect of the share as those to which he, she or it would have been subject if the shares had remained, or had been, as the case requires, registered in the name of the dead person, the incapable person or the bankrupt, as the case may be; and
- (b) subject to no other liabilities in respect of the shares.

(7) Shares registered in a register and held by a trustee in respect of a particular trust may, with the consent of the Company, be marked in the register in such a way as to identify them as being held in respect of the trust.

(8) Except as provided in this section and section 82—

- (a) no notice of a trust, whether express, implied or constructive, must be entered on a register kept in Fiji or be receivable by the Registrar;
- (b) no liabilities are affected by anything done under a preceding subsection of this section or under section 82; and
- (c) nothing so done affects the Company concerned with notice of a trust.

(9) A person must, within 28 days after beginning to hold shares in a Private Company as trustee for, or otherwise on behalf of or on account of, a Company, serve on the Company, notice in writing that the person so holds the shares.

Notices relating to non-beneficial and beneficial ownership of shares

251.—(1) If, upon registration of a transfer of shares in a Company, the transferee would hold non beneficially particular shares (the “relevant shares”), being all or any of the shares to which the transfer relates, the transferee must only lodge the instrument of transfer with the Company for registration of the transfer if the instrument of transfer includes a notice that—

- (a) contains a statement to the effect that, upon registration of the transfer, the transferee will hold the relevant shares non beneficially;
- (b) sets out particulars of the relevant shares; and
- (c) is signed by or on behalf of the transferee.

(2) The fact that a person has failed to comply with subsection (1) does not affect the validity of the registration of a transfer of shares in a Company.

(3) If—

- (a) an instrument of transfer of shares in a Company includes a notice of the kind referred to in subsection (1) and is lodged with the Company for registration of the transfer; and
- (b) upon registration of the transfer, the transferee holds beneficially particular shares in this subsection called the “relevant shares”, being all or any of the shares, particulars of which are set out in the notice,

then, before the end of 14 days beginning on registration of the transfer, the transferee must, whether or not the transferee begins before the end of that period to hold all or any of the relevant shares non beneficially, give to the Company a notice that—

- (i) sets out the name and address of the transferee;
- (ii) contains a statement to the effect that, as from registration of the transfer, the transferee holds the relevant shares beneficially;
- (iii) sets out particulars of the relevant shares; and
- (iv) is signed by or on behalf of the transferee.

(4) If—

- (a) an instrument of transfer of shares in a Company is lodged with the Company for registration of the transfer; and
- (b) upon registration of the transfer, the transferee holds non beneficially particular shares in this subsection called the “relevant shares”, being all or any of the shares to which the instrument of transfer relates other than, in a case in which the instrument of transfer includes a notice of the kind referred to in subsection (1), the shares, particulars of which are set out in the notice,

then, before the end of 14 days beginning on registration of the transfer, the transferee must, whether or not the transferee begins before the end of that period to hold any of the relevant shares beneficially, give to the Company a notice that—

- (i) sets out the name and address of the transferee;
- (ii) contains a statement to the effect that, as from registration of the transfer, the transferee holds the relevant shares non beneficially;
- (iii) sets out particulars of the relevant shares; and
- (iv) is signed by or on behalf of the transferee.

(5) If—

it must inform the liquidator accordingly, and the liquidator may begin a prosecution for any offence referred to in the report with the consent of the Registrar.

(2) The Registrar may direct that the whole or a specified part of the costs and expenses properly incurred by a liquidator in proceedings under this section must be paid out of money of the Registrar.

(3) Subject to a direction under subsection (2), to any Charges on the Property of the Company and to any debt to which this Act gives priority, all such costs and expenses are payable out of that Property as part of the costs of the winding up.

When liquidator has qualified privilege

436. A liquidator has qualified privilege in respect of a statement that he or she makes, whether orally or in writing, in the course of his or her duties as liquidator.

PART 36—ARRANGEMENTS AND RECONSTRUCTIONS

Power to compromise with creditors and Members

437.—(1) Where a compromise or arrangement is proposed between a Company and its creditors or any class of them or between the Company and its Members or any class of them, the Court may, on the application of the Company or of any creditor or Member of the Company, or, in the case of a Company being wound up, of the liquidator, order a meeting or meetings of the creditors or class of creditors, or of the Members of the Company or class of Members, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the Court directs.

(2) The Court must not make an order pursuant to an application under subsection (1) unless—

- (a) 14 days' notice of the hearing of the application, or such lesser period of notice as the Court or the Registrar permits, has been given to the Registrar, together with a draft explanatory statement relating to the proposed compromise or arrangement; and
- (b) the Court is satisfied that the Registrar has had a reasonable opportunity—
 - (i) to examine the terms of the proposed compromise or arrangement to which the application relates and a draft explanatory statement relating to the proposed compromise or arrangement; and
 - (ii) to make submissions to the Court in relation to the proposed compromise or arrangement and the draft explanatory statement.

(3) In subsection (2), “draft explanatory statement”, in relation to a proposed compromise or arrangement between a Company and its creditors or any class of them or between a Company and its Members or any class of them, means a statement—

- (a) explaining the effect of the proposed compromise or arrangement and, in particular, stating any material interests of the Directors of the Company, whether as Directors, as Members or creditors of the Company or otherwise, and the effect on those interests of the proposed compromise or arrangement in so far as that effect is different from the effect on the like interests of other persons; and
- (b) setting out such information as is prescribed and any other information that is material to the making of a decision by a creditor or Member of the Company whether or not to agree to the proposed compromise or arrangement, being information that is within the knowledge of the Directors of the Company and has not previously been disclosed to the creditors or Members of the Company.

(4) A compromise or arrangement is binding on the creditors, or on a class of creditors, or on the Members, or on a class of Members, as the case may be, of the Company and on the Company or, if the Company is in the course of being wound up, on the liquidator and contributories of the Company, if, and only if—

- (a) at a meeting convened in accordance with an order of the Court under subsection (1)—
 - (i) in the case of a compromise or arrangement between a Company and its creditors or a class of creditors – the compromise or arrangement is agreed to by a majority in number of the creditors, or of the creditors included in that class of creditors, present and voting, either in person or by proxy, being a majority whose debts or claims against the Company amount in the aggregate to at least 75% of the total amount of the debts and claims of the creditors present and voting in person or by proxy, or of the creditors included in that class present and voting in person or by proxy, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) in the case of a compromise or arrangement between a Company and its Members or a class of Members – a resolution in favour of the compromise or arrangement is—
 - A. unless the Court orders otherwise – passed by a majority in number of the Members, or Members in that class, present and voting (either in person or by proxy); and
 - B. if the Company has a share capital – passed by 75% of the votes cast on the resolution; and
- (b) it is approved by order of the Court.

(5) A copy of every such order made under subsection (4) must be annexed to every copy of the Articles of Association of the Company issued after the order has been made.

(6) The Court may grant its approval to a compromise or arrangement subject to such alterations or conditions as it thinks just.

(7) If—

- (a) the Court has granted its approval to a compromise or arrangement subject to an alteration or condition;
- (b) the Company concerned contravenes—
 - (i) in the case of an alteration – the provision or provisions of the compromise or arrangement to which the alteration relates; or
 - (ii) in the case of a condition – the condition; and
- (c) the Court is satisfied that a person suffered loss or damage as a result of the contravention,

the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

(8) The Court must not approve a compromise or arrangement under this section unless there is produced to the Court a statement in writing by the Registrar stating that the Registrar has no objection to the compromise or arrangement, but the Court need not approve a compromise or arrangement merely because of such a statement.

(9) Except with the leave of the Court, a person must not be appointed to administer, and must not administer, a compromise or arrangement approved under this Act between a Company and its creditors or any class of them or between the Company and its Members or any class of them, if the person—

- (a) is a mortgagee of any Property of the Company;
- (b) is an Auditor of the Company;
- (c) is a Director, Company secretary, senior manager or employee of the Company;
- (d) is a Director, Company secretary, senior manager or employee of a Company that is a mortgagee of Property of the Company;
- (e) is not a registered liquidator; or
- (f) is a Director, Company secretary, senior manager or employee of a Related Body Corporate of the Company.

(10) Subsection (9) does not disqualify a person from administering a compromise or arrangement under an appointment validly made under a Repealed Act.

Information as to compromises with creditors and Members

438.—(1) Where a meeting of creditors or any class of creditors or of Members or any class of Members is convened under section 437, the Company must—

- (a) with every notice convening the meeting which is sent to a creditor or Member, send a statement (in this section called the “explanatory statement”) explaining the effect of the compromise or arrangement and, in particular, stating any material interests of the Directors of the Company, whether as Directors or as Members or as creditors of the Company or otherwise, and the effect on those interests of the compromise or arrangement, in so far as that effect is different from the effect on the like interests of other persons; and
- (b) in every notice summoning the meeting which is given by advertisement, include either a copy of the explanatory statement or a notification of the place at which and the manner in which creditors or Members entitled to attend the meeting may obtain copies of the explanatory statement.

(2) Where the compromise or arrangement affects the rights of Debenture Holders of the Company, the explanatory statement must specify any material interests of the trustees for the Debenture Holders, whether as such trustees, as Members or creditors of the Company or otherwise, and the effect on those interests of the compromise or arrangement in so far as that effect is different from the effect on the like interests of other persons.

(3) Where a notice given by advertisement includes a notification that copies of the explanatory statement can be obtained by creditors or Members entitled to attend the meeting, every such creditor or Member must, on making application in the manner indicated by the notice, be furnished by the Company, free of charge, with a copy of the explanatory statement.

Provisions for facilitating reconstruction and amalgamation of Companies

439.—(1) Where an application is made to the Court under section 437 for the approval of a compromise or arrangement, and it is shown to the Court that the compromise or arrangement has been proposed for the purposes of, or in connection with, a scheme for the reconstruction of any Company or Companies or the amalgamation of any two or more Companies, and that, under the Scheme, the whole or any part of the undertaking or the Property of any Company concerned in the scheme (in this section called the “transferor company”) is to be transferred to another Company (in this section called the “transferee company”), the Court may, either by the order approving the compromise or arrangement or by any subsequent order, make provision for all or any of the following matters—

- (a) the transfer to the transferee company of the whole or any part of the undertaking and of the Property or liabilities of any transferor company;
- (b) the allotting or appropriation by the transferee company of any Shares, Debentures, policies or other like interests in that Company, which, under the compromise or arrangement, are to be allotted or appropriated by that Company to or for any person;

- (c) the continuation by or against the transferee company of any legal proceedings pending by or against any transferor company;
- (d) the deregistration, without winding up, of any transferor company;
- (e) the provision to be made for any person who, within such time and in such manner as the Court directs, dissent from the compromise or arrangement;
- (f) such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters as are necessary to ensure that the reconstruction or amalgamation is fully and effectively carried out.

(2) Where an order under this section provides for the transfer of Property or liabilities, that Property must, by virtue of the order, be transferred to and vest in, and those liabilities must, by virtue of the order, be transferred to and become the liabilities of, the transferee company and, in the case of any Property, if the order so directs, freed from any Charge which is, by virtue of the compromise or arrangement, to cease to have effect.

(3) Where an order is made under this section, every Company in relation to which the order is made must Lodge a copy of the order with the Registrar, using the Prescribed Form, within 14 days of the order being made.

(4) In this section, “liabilities” includes duties of any description, including duties that are of a personal character or are incapable under the general law of being assigned or performed vicariously.

Power to acquire Shares of Members dissenting from scheme or contract approved by majority

440.—(1) In this section—

“dissenting member” in relation to a scheme or contract, means a Member who has not assented to the scheme or contract or who has failed to transfer his, her or its Shares in accordance with the scheme or contract; and

“excluded shares” in relation to a scheme or contract involving a transfer to a person of Shares in a class of Shares in a Company, means Shares in that class that, when the offer relating to the scheme or contract is made, are held by—

- (a) in any case – the person or a nominee of the person; or
- (b) if the person is a Company or Foreign Company – a Subsidiary of the Company or Foreign Company.

(2) Where a scheme or contract (not being a scheme or contract arising out of the making of offers under a Bidder’s Statement) involving the transfer of Shares or any class of Shares in a Company (in this section referred to as the “transferor company”) to another Company (in this section referred to as the “transferee company”) has, within 4 months after the making of the offer in that behalf by the transferee company, been approved by the holders of not less than 90% in value of the Shares whose transfer is involved (other than excluded shares), the transferee company may, at any time within 2 months after the expiration of the said 4 months, give notice in the Prescribed Form to any dissenting member that the transferee wishes to acquire the Shares held by the dissenting member.

(3) When such a notice is given, the transferee company must, unless, on, an application made by the dissenting member within 28 days from the date on which the notice was given, the Court thinks fit to order otherwise, be entitled and bound to acquire those Shares on the terms on which, under the scheme or contract, the Shares of the approving Members are to be transferred to the transferee company.

(4) Where alternative terms were offered to the approving Members, the dissenting member is entitled to elect not later than the end of 28 days after the date on which the notice is given, which of those terms the dissenting member prefers and, if the dissenting member fails to make the election within the time allowed by this subsection, the transferee company may, unless the Court otherwise orders, determine which of those terms is to apply to the acquisition of the Shares of the dissenting member.

(5) Despite subsections (3) and (4), if the number of votes attached to excluded shares is more than 10% of in value of the value of the excluded shares and that of the Shares (other than the excluded shares) to be transferred, those sections do not apply unless—

- (a) the transferee company offers the same terms to all holders of the Shares (other than excluded shares) to be transferred under the scheme or contract; and
- (b) the holders who approve the scheme or contract hold Shares to which are attached at least 90% of the votes attached to the Shares (other than excluded shares) to be transferred under the scheme or contract and are also at least 75% in number of the holders of those Shares.

(6) For the purposes of this subsection, two or more persons registered as holding Shares jointly are to be counted as one person.

(7) Where, in pursuance of any such scheme or contract, the transferee company becomes beneficially entitled to Shares in the transferor company which, together with any other Shares in the transferor company to which the transferee company or a Related Body Corporate is beneficially entitled, have attached to them at least 90% in value of the Shares in the transferor company or any class of those Shares, then—

- (a) the transferee company must, within 28 days from the date of the transfer (unless on a previous transfer in pursuance of the scheme or contract it has already complied with this requirement), give notice of that fact in the Prescribed Form to the holder of the remaining Shares or of the remaining Shares of that class, as the case may be, who have not assented to the scheme or contract; and

(b) any such holder may, within 3 months from the giving of the notice to him or her, require the transferee company to acquire the Shares in question, and, where alternative terms were offered to the approving Members, elect which of those terms he, she or it will accept.

(8) When a notice is given under subsection (7)(b), the transferee company must be entitled and bound to acquire those Shares on the terms on which, under the scheme or contract, the Shares of the approving Members were to be transferred to the transferee company.

(9) Subsections (10) and (11) apply where a notice has been given under subsection (2) or (7) unless the Court, on an application made by the dissenting members, orders to the contrary.

(10) The transferee company must, within 14 days after—

- (a) the end of 28 days after the day on which the notice was given; or
- (b) if an application has been made to the Court by a dissenting member – the application is disposed of;

whichever last happens—

- (i) send a copy of the notice to the transferor company together with an instrument of transfer that relates to the Shares that the transferee company is entitled to acquire under this section and is executed, on the Member’s behalf, by a person appointed by the transferee and, on the transferee company’s own behalf, by the transferee company; and
- (ii) pay, allot or transfer to the transferor company the consideration for the Shares.

(11) When the transferee company has complied with subsection (10), the transferor company must register the transferee company as the holder of the Shares.

(12) All sums received by the transferor company under this section must be paid into a separate bank account and those sums, and any other consideration so received, must be held by that person in trust for the several persons entitled to the Shares in respect of which they were respectively received.

- (b) entitled in respect of that liability to indemnity out of the assets.

Court may declare whether putative receiver or manager is validly acting

445.—(1) Where there is doubt, on a specific ground, about—

- (a) whether a purported appointment of a person as Receiver or Manager of Property of a Company is valid; or 448.—(1) Where a Receiver or Manager of the Property of a Company has been appointed, every invoice, order for goods or business letter issued by or on behalf of the Company or the Receiver or Manager or the liquidator of the Company, being a document on or in which the name of the Company appears, must contain a statement that a Receiver or Manager has been appointed.

(2) If default is made in complying with the requirements of this section, the Company and any of the following persons who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits the default, namely, any Officer of the Company, any liquidator of the Company and any Receiver or Manager, must be deemed to commit an offence.

449.—(1) The Court may, on an application by the liquidator of a Company, by order, fix the amount to be paid by way of remuneration to any person who, under the powers contained in any instrument, has been appointed as Receiver or Manager of the Property of the Company.

453.—(1) If any Receiver or Manager of the Property of a Company—

- (a) having made default in filing, delivering or making any return, account or other document, or in giving any notice, which a Receiver or Manager is, by law, required to file, deliver, make or give, fails to make good the default within 14 days after the service on the Receiver or Manager of a notice requiring the Receiver or Manager to do so; or

- (b) having been appointed under the powers contained in any instrument, has, after being required, at any time, by the liquidator of the Company so to do, failed to render proper accounts of his or her receipts and payments and to vouch the same and to pay over to the liquidator the amount properly payable to him or her,

the Court may, on an application made for the purpose, make an order directing the Receiver or Manager, as the case may be, to make good the default, within such time as may be specified in the order.

(2) In the case of any such default under subsection (1)(a), an application for the purposes of this section may be made by any Member or creditor of the Company or by the Registrar and, in the case of any such default under subsection (1)(a), the application must be made by the liquidator and, in either case, the order may provide that all costs of and incidental to the application must be borne by the Receiver or Manager, as the case may be.

(3) Nothing in this section must be taken to prejudice the operation of any provision of this Act imposing penalties on Receivers or Managers in respect of any such default under subsection (1).

454.—(1) A Receiver or Manager, or any other authorised person, who, whether as agent for the Company concerned or not, enters into possession or assumes control of any Property of a Company for the purpose of enforcing any Charge is, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, but without prejudice to the person’s rights against the Company or any other person, liable for debts incurred by the person in the course of the receivership, possession or control for services rendered, goods purchased or Property hired, leased, used or occupied.

(2) Where—

- (a) a Receiver or Manager (in this subsection called the “controller”) enters into possession or assumes control of Property of a Company;
- (b) the controller purports to have been properly appointed as a Receiver or Manager in respect of that Property under a power contained in an instrument, but has not been properly so appointed; and
- (c) civil proceedings in a Fiji court arise out of an act alleged to have been done by the controller, the Court may, if it is satisfied that the controller believed on reasonable grounds that the controller had been properly so appointed, order that—

- (i) the controller be relieved in whole or in part of a liability that the controller has incurred but would not have incurred if the controller had been properly so appointed; and

- (ii) a person who purported to appoint the controller as Receiver or Manager be liable in respect of an act, matter or thing in so far as the controller has been relieved under paragraph (d) of liability in respect of that act, matter or thing.

Liability of controller under pre-existing agreement about Property used by Company

455.—(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a Receiver or Manager (in this subsection called the “controller”) enters into possession or assumes control of Property of a Company;
- (b) under an agreement made before the day on which the controller enters into possession (the “control day”), the Company continues after that day to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, Property (the “third party Property”) of which someone else is the owner or lessor; and
- (c) the controller is controller of the third party Property.

(2) Subject to subsections (4) and (7), the controller is liable for so much of the rent or other amounts payable by the Company under the agreement as is attributable to a period beginning more than 7 days after the control day and throughout which—

- (a) the Company continues to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, the third party Property; and
- (b) the controller is controller of the third party Property.

(3) Within 7 days after the control day, the controller may give to the owner or lessor a notice that specifies the third party Property and states that the controller does not propose to exercise rights in relation to that Property as controller of the Property, whether on behalf of the Company or anyone else.

(4) Despite subsection (2), the controller is not liable for so much of the rent or other amounts payable by the Company under the agreement as is attributable to a period during which a notice under subsection (3) is in force, but such a notice does not affect a liability of the Company.

(5) A notice under subsection (3) ceases to have effect if—

- (a) the controller revokes it by writing given to the owner or lessor; or
- (b) the controller exercises, or purports to exercise, a right in relation to the third party Property as controller of the Property, whether on behalf of the Company or anyone else.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the controller does not exercise, or purport to exercise, a right as mentioned in subsection (5)(b) merely because the controller continues to be in possession, or to have control, of the third party Property, unless the controller—

- (a) also uses the Property; or
- (b) asserts a right, as against the owner or lessor, so to continue.

(7) Subsection (2) does not apply in so far as a Court, by order, excuses the controller from liability, but an order does not affect a liability of the Company.

(8) The controller is not taken because of subsection (2)—

- (a) to have adopted the agreement; or
- (b) to be liable under the agreement otherwise than as mentioned in subsection (2).

Duty of care in exercising power of sale

456.—(1) In exercising a power of sale in respect of Property of a Company, a Receiver or Manager must take all reasonable care to sell the Property for—

- (a) if, when it is sold, it has a market value – not less than that market value; or
- (b) otherwise – the best price that is reasonably obtainable, having regard to the circumstances existing when the Property is sold.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits the generality of anything in Division 3 of Part 10.

Receiver's power to carry on Company's business during winding up

457.—(1) A Receiver or Manager of Property of a Company that is being wound up may—

- (a) with the written approval of the Company's liquidator or with the approval of the Court, carry on the Company's business either generally or as otherwise specified in the approval; and
- (b) do whatever is necessarily incidental to carrying on that business under paragraph (a).

(2) Subsection (1) does not—

- (a) affect a power that the Receiver or Manager has otherwise than under that subsection; or
- (b) empower the Receiver or Manager to do an act that he or she would not have power to do if the Company were not being wound up.

(3) A Receiver or Manager of Property of a Company who carries on the Company's business under subsection (1) does so—

- (a) as agent for the Company; and
- (b) in the person's capacity as Receiver or Manager of Property of the Company.

- (4) The consequences of subsection (3) include, but are not limited to, the following—
- (a) for the purposes of section 454(1), a debt that the Receiver or Manager incurs in carrying on the business as mentioned in subsection (3) is incurred in the course of the receivership;
 - (b) a debt or liability that the Receiver or Manager incurs in so carrying on the business is not a cost, charge or expense of the winding up.

459. Where, on the application of a Company, the Court is satisfied that a Receiver or Manager of Property of the Company has been guilty of misconduct in connection with performing or exercising any of the person's functions and powers, the Court may order that, on and after a specified day, the person cease to act as Receiver or Manager or give up possession or control, as the case requires, of Property of the Company.

Court may remove redundant controller

460.—(1) The Court may order that, on and after a specified day, a Receiver or Manager of Property of a Company (“Controller”)—

- (a) cease to act as Receiver or Manager, or give up possession or control, as the case requires, of Property of the Company; or
- (b) act as Receiver or Manager, or continue in possession or control, as the case requires, only of specified Property of the Company.

(2) However, the Court may only make an order under subsection (1) if satisfied that the objectives for which the controller was appointed, or entered into possession or took control of Property of the Company, as the case requires, have been achieved, so far as is reasonably practicable, except in relation to any Property specified in the order under subsection (1)(b).

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Court must have regard to—

- (a) the Company's interests;
- (b) the interests of the holder of the Charge that the controller is enforcing;
- (c) the interests of the Company's other creditors; and
- (d) any other relevant matter.

(4) The Court may only make an order under subsection (1) on the application of a liquidator appointed for the purposes of winding up the Company in Insolvency.

(5) An order under subsection (1) may also prohibit the holder of the Charge from doing any or all of the following, except with the leave of the Court—

- (a) appointing a person as Receiver or Manager of Property of the Company under a power contained in an instrument relating to the Charge;
- (b) entering into possession, or taking control, of such Property for the purpose of enforcing the Charge;
- (c) appointing a person so to enter into possession or take control (whether as agent for the Chargee or for the Company).

Effect of sections 459 and 460

461.—(1) Except as expressly provided in section 459 or 460, an order under that section does not affect a Charge on Property of a Company.

(2) Nothing in section 459 or 460 limits any other power of the Court to remove, or otherwise deal with, a Receiver or Manager of Property of a Company.

(3) If the Company is an Unlimited Liability Company, the amount that a Member or a person who is a past Member, has undertaken to contribute to the Company's Property if the Company is wound up, is unlimited.

Insolvent Companies – mutual credit and set off

- (c) only the balance of the account is admissible to proof against the Company, or is payable to the Company, as the case may be.

(2) A person is not entitled under this section to claim the benefit of a set off if, at the time of giving credit to the Company, or at the time of receiving credit from the Company, the person had notice of the fact that the Company was Insolvent.

Preferential payments

473.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, in the winding up of a Company, there shall be paid in priority to all other debts—

- (a) all Government taxes and local rates due from the Company at the relevant date and having become due and payable within 12 months next before that date, not exceeding in the whole 1 year's assessment and all Government taxes legally withheld by the Company from payments made by it to employees, Members, and others;
- (b) all Government issued rents not more than 1 year in arrears;
- (c) all wages or salary (whether or not earned wholly or in part by way of commission) of any clerk or servant (not being a Director) in respect of services rendered to the Company during 4 months next before the relevant date and all wages (whether payable for time or for piece work) of any workman or labourer in respect of services so rendered;
- (d) unless the Company is being wound up voluntarily merely for the purposes of reconstruction or amalgamation with another Company, or unless the Company has, at the commencement of the winding up, under any contract with insurers, rights capable of being transferred to and vested in the workman, all amounts due in respect of any compensation or liability for compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act (Cap. 94), being amounts which have accrued before the relevant date;
- (e) unless the Company is being wound up voluntarily merely for the purposes of reconstruction or amalgamation with another Company, all amounts due in respect of contributions payable during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the relevant date by the Company as the employer of any person under the Fiji National Provident Fund Act (Cap. 219).

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1)(c), the sum to which priority is to be given under that paragraph shall not, in the case of any claimant, exceed $600, provided that, where a claimant under that subsection is a labourer in husbandry who has entered into a contract for the payment of a portion of his or her wages in a lump sum at the end of the year of hiring, that person shall have priority in respect of the whole of such sum, or a part of the compensation, as the Court may decide to be due under the contract, proportionate to the time of service up to the relevant date.

(3) Where any compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act (Cap. 94), is a weekly payment, the amount due in respect of the compensation shall, for the purposes of subsection (1)(d), be taken to be the amount of the lump sum for which the weekly payment could, if redeemable, be redeemed, if the employer has made an application for that purpose under the said Act.

(4) Where any payment has been made to any clerk, or servant (not being a Director) or to any workman or labourer in the employment of a Company, on account of wages or salary, out of money advanced by some person for that purpose, the person by whom the money was advanced shall, in a winding up, have a right of priority in respect of the money so advanced and paid, up to the amount by which the sum in respect of which the clerk, servant, workman or labourer would have been entitled to priority in the winding up has been diminished by reason of the payment having been made.

(5) The above debts shall—

- (a) rank equally among themselves and be paid in full, unless the assets are insufficient to meet them, in which case, they shall abate in equal proportions; and
- (b) so far as the assets of the Company available for payment of general creditors are insufficient to meet them, have priority over the claims of holders of Debentures under any floating Charge created by the Company, and be paid accordingly out of any Property comprised in or subject to that Charge.

(7) In the event of a landlord or other person distraining or having distrained any goods or effects of the Company within 6 months next before the date of a winding up order, the debts to which priority is given by this section shall be a first Charge on the goods or effects so distrained on, or the proceeds of the sale, provided that, in respect of any money paid under any such Charge, the landlord or other person shall have the same rights or priority as the person to whom the payment is made.

(8) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) any remuneration in respect of a period of absence from work through sickness or other good cause shall be deemed to be wages in respect of services rendered to the Company during that period;
- (b) “the relevant date” means—
 - (i) in the case of a Company ordered to be wound up compulsorily, the date of the appointment (or first appointment) of an interim liquidator, or, if no such appointment was made, the date of the winding up order, unless, in either case, the Company had commenced to be wound up voluntarily before that date; and

- (ii) in any case where sub-paragraph (i) does not apply, the date of the passing of the resolution for the winding up of the Company.

Division 4—Effect of Winding up on Antecedent and Other Transactions

474.—(1) A transaction is an unfair preference given by a Company to a creditor of the Company if, and only if—

- (a) the Company and the creditor are parties to the transaction (even if someone else is also a party); and
- (b) the transaction results in the creditor receiving from the Company, in respect of an unsecured debt that the Company owes to the creditor, more than the creditor would receive from the Company in respect of the debt if the transaction were set aside and the creditor were to prove for the debt in a winding up of the Company, even if the transaction is entered into, is given effect to, or is required to be given effect to, because of an order of the Court or a direction by an agency (in this Part called an “Unfair Preference”).

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a secured debt is taken to be unsecured to the extent of so much of it (if any) as is not reflected in the value of the security.

Uncommercial transactions

475.—(1) A transaction of a Company is an uncommercial transaction of the Company if, and only if, it may be expected that a reasonable person in the Company’s circumstances would not have entered into the transaction, having regard to—

- (a) the benefits (if any) to the Company of entering into the transaction;
- (b) the detriment to the Company of entering into the transaction;
- (c) the respective benefits to other parties to the transaction of entering into it; and
- (d) any other relevant matter,

(in this Part called an “Uncommercial Transaction”).

(2) A transaction may be an Uncommercial Transaction of a Company because of subsection (1)—

- (a) whether or not a creditor of the Company is a party to the transaction; and
- (b) even if the transaction is given effect to, or is required to be given effect to, because of an order of the Court or a direction by an agency.

476. A transaction of a Company is an insolvent transaction of the Company if, and only if, it is an Unfair Preference given by the Company, or an Uncommercial Transaction of the Company, and—

- (a) any of the following happens at a time when the Company is Insolvent—
 - (i) the transaction is entered into; or
 - (ii) an act is done, or an omission is made, for the purpose of giving effect to the transaction; or
- (b) the Company becomes Insolvent because of, or because of matters including—
 - (i) entering into the transaction; or
 - (ii) a person doing an act, or making an omission, for the purpose of giving effect to the transaction,

(in this Part called an “Insolvent Transaction”).

- (b) the Charges in relation to the loan were extortionate when the loan was made, or have since become extortionate because of a variation, even if the interest is, or the Charges are, no longer extortionate (in this Part called an “Unfair Loan”).

(2) In determining if a loan to a Company is unfair under subsection (1), regard is to be had to the following matters as at that time—

- (a) the risk to which the lender was exposed;
- (b) the value of any security in respect of the loan;
- (c) the term of the loan;
- (d) the schedule for payments of interest and Charges and for repayments of principal;
- (e) the amount of the loan; and
- (f) any other relevant matter.

 - (iii) a Related Body Corporate of a Director of the Company; or
 - (iv) a person on behalf of, or for the benefit of, a person mentioned in sub-paragraph (i), (ii) or (iii); and
- (c) it may be expected that a reasonable person in the Company’s circumstances would not have entered into the transaction, having regard to—

 - (ii) the detriment to the Company of entering into the transaction;
 - (iii) the respective benefits to other parties to the transaction of entering into it; and
 - (iv) any other relevant matter,

(in this Part called an “Unreasonable Director Related Transaction”).

(2) To avoid doubt, if—

- (a) the transaction is a payment, disposition or issue; and
- (b) the transaction is entered into for the purpose of meeting an obligation the Company has incurred, the test in subsection (1)(c) applies to the transaction taking into account the circumstances as they exist at the time when the transaction is entered into (rather than as they existed at the time when the obligation was incurred).

(3) A transaction may be an Unreasonable Director Related Transaction because of subsection (1)—

- (a) whether or not a creditor of the Company is a party to the transaction; and
- (b) even if the transaction is given effect to, or is required to be given effect to, because of an order of the Court or a direction by an agency.

Voidable transactions

479.—(1) The transaction is voidable if—

- (a) it is an Insolvent Transaction of the Company; and
- (b) it was entered into, or an act was done for the purpose of giving effect to it—
 - (i) during the 6 months ending on the Relation-Back Day; or
 - (ii) after that day but on or before the day when the winding up began.

(2) The transaction is voidable if—

(3) The transaction is voidable if—

- (a) it is an Insolvent Transaction of the Company;

- (c) it was entered into, or an act was done for the purpose of giving effect to it, during the 4 years ending on the Relation-Back Day.

(4) The transaction is voidable if—

- (a) it is an Insolvent Transaction of the Company;
- (b) the Company became a party to the transaction for the purpose, or for purposes including the purpose, of defeating, delaying, or interfering with, the rights of any or all of its creditors on a winding up of the Company; and
- (c) the transaction was entered into, or an act done was for the purpose of giving effect to the transaction, during the 10 years ending on the Relation-Back Day.

(5) The transaction is voidable if it is an Unfair Loan to the Company made at any time on or before the day when the winding up began.

(6) The transaction is voidable if—

- (a) it is an Unreasonable Director Related Transaction of the Company; and

- (b) it was entered into, or an act was done for the purposes of giving effect to it—
 - (i) during the 4 years ending on the Relation-Back Day; or
 - (ii) after that day but on or before the day when the winding up began.

(7) A reference in this section to doing an act includes a reference to making an omission.

Courts may make orders about voidable transactions

480.—(1) Where, on the application of a Company’s liquidator, the Court is satisfied that a transaction of the Company is voidable because of section 479, the Court may make one or more of the following orders—

- (a) an order directing a person to pay to the Company an amount equal to some or all of the money that the Company has paid under the transaction;
- (b) an order directing a person to transfer to the Company, Property that the Company has transferred under the transaction;
- (c) an order requiring a person to pay to the Company an amount that, in the Court’s opinion, fairly represents some or all of the benefits that the person has received because of the transaction;
- (d) an order requiring a person to transfer to the Company, Property that, in the Court’s opinion, fairly represents the application of either or both of the following—
 - (i) money that the Company has paid under the transaction;
 - (ii) proceeds of Property that the Company has transferred under the transaction;
- (e) an order releasing or discharging, wholly or partly, a debt incurred, or a security or guarantee given, by the Company under or in connection with the transaction;
- (f) if the transaction is an Unfair Loan and such a debt, security or guarantee has been assigned – an order directing a person to indemnify the Company in respect of some or all of its liability to the assignee;
- (g) an order providing for the extent to which, and the terms on which, a debt that arose under, or was released or discharged to any extent by or under, the transaction may be proved in a winding up of the Company;

- (i) an order varying such an agreement as specified in the order and, if the Court thinks fit, declaring the agreement to have had effect, as so varied, at and after the time when the agreement was made, or at and after a specified later time;
- (j) an order declaring such an agreement, or specified provisions of such an agreement, to be unenforceable.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits the generality of anything else in it.

(3) An application under subsection (1) may only be made—

(a) during the period beginning on the Relation-Back Day and ending—

- (i) 3 years after the Relation-Back Day; or
- (ii) 12 months after the first appointment of a liquidator in relation to the winding up of the Company,

whichever is the later; or

(b) within such longer period as the Court orders on an application under this paragraph made by the liquidator during the paragraph (a) period.

(4) If the transaction is a voidable transaction solely because it is an Unreasonable Director Related Transaction, the Court may make orders under subsection (1) only for the purpose of recovering for the benefit of the creditors of the Company the difference between—

- (a) the total value of the benefits provided by the Company under the transaction; and
- (b) the value (if any) that it may be expected that a reasonable person in the Company's circumstances would have provided having regard to the matters referred to in section 478(1)(c).

Transaction not voidable as against certain persons

481.—(1) A Court is not to make under section 480 an order materially prejudicing a right or interest of a person other than a party to the transaction if it is proved that—

- (a) the person received no benefit because of the transaction; or
- (b) in relation to each benefit that the person received because of the transaction—
 - (i) the person received the benefit in good faith; and
 - (ii) at the time when the person received the benefit—
 - A. the person had no reasonable grounds for suspecting that the Company was Insolvent at that time or would become Insolvent as mentioned in section 476(b); and

- B. a reasonable person in the person's circumstances would have had no such grounds for so suspecting.

(2) The Court is not to make under section 480 an order materially prejudicing a right or interest of a person if the transaction is not an Unfair Loan to the Company, or an Unreasonable Director Related Transaction of the Company, and it is proved that—

- (a) the person became a party to the transaction in good faith;
- (b) at the time when the person became such a party—
 - (i) the person had no reasonable grounds for suspecting that the Company was Insolvent at that time or would become Insolvent as mentioned in section 476(b); and
 - (ii) a reasonable person in the person's circumstances would have had no such grounds for so suspecting; and
- (c) the person has provided valuable consideration under the transaction or has changed his, her or its position in reliance on the transaction.

Creditor who gives up benefit of unfair preference may prove for preferred debt

482.—(1) This section applies where at the request of the Company's liquidator, because of an order under section 480, or for any other reason, the creditor has put the Company in the same position as if the transaction had not been entered into.

(2) A court must not make under section 480, on an application relating to the transaction, an order prejudicing a right or interest of the creditor.

(3) The creditor may prove in the winding up as if the transaction had not been entered into.

Floating Charge created within 6 months before Relation-Back Day

483.—(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a Company is being wound up in Insolvency; and
- (b) the Company created a Floating Charge on Property of the Company at a particular time—
 - (i) during the 6 months ending on the Relation-Back Day; or
 - (ii) after that day but on or before the day when the winding up began.

(2) The Charge is void, as against the Company's liquidator, except so far as it secures—

- (a) an advance paid to the Company, or at its direction, at or after that time and as consideration for the Charge;
- (b) interest on such an advance;

- (c) the amount of a liability under a guarantee or other obligation undertaken at or after that time on behalf of, or for the benefit of, the Company;
- (d) an amount payable for Property or services supplied to the Company at or after that time; or
- (e) interest on an amount so payable.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply if it is proved that the Company was Solvent immediately after that time.

(2) Where a Company is being wound up voluntarily or subject to supervision, a winding up application may be presented by the Official Receiver, as well as by any other person authorised in that behalf under the other provisions of this section, but the Court must not make a winding up order on the application, unless it is satisfied that the voluntary winding up or winding up subject to supervision cannot be continued with due regard to the interests of the creditors or contributories.

(2) Where the application is presented by Members of the Company as contributories on the ground that it is just and equitable that the Company should be wound up, the Court, if it is of the opinion—

- (a) that the applicants are entitled to relief, either by winding up the Company or by some other means; and
- (b) that, in the absence of any other remedy, it would be just and equitable that the Company should be wound up,

Power to stay or restrain proceedings against Company

524.—(1) At any time after the making of a winding up application, and before a winding up order has been made, the Company, or any creditor or contributory, may—

Period within which application must be determined

528.—(1) An application for a Company to be wound up in Insolvency is to be determined within 6 months after it is made.

(3) An application is, because of this subsection, dismissed if it is not determined as required by this section.

Company may not oppose application on certain grounds

(5) If a Company is reinstated, the Company is taken to have continued in existence as if it had not been deregistered. A person who was a Director of the Company immediately before deregistration becomes a Director again as from the time when the Registrar or the Court reinstates the Company. Any Property of the Company that is still vested in the Government or the Registrar reverts in the Company. If the Company held particular Property subject to a security or other interest or claim, the Company takes the Property subject to that interest or claim.

PART 43—OFFENCES

Division 1—General

Application of Crimes Decree 2009

625. Subject to this Act, Chapter II of the Crimes Decree 2009 applies to all offences against this Act.

General penalty provisions

626. A person who—

- (a) does an act or thing that the person is forbidden to do by or under a provision of this Act;
- (b) does not do an act or thing that the person is required or directed to do by or under a provision of this Act; or
- (c) otherwise contravenes a provision of this Act, is guilty of an offence and—

- (i) is liable to pay a Penalty not exceeding the Maximum Penalty prescribed for a contravention of that provision in accordance with this Act, unless a provision of this Act provides that the person is or is not guilty of an offence; or
- (ii) if no Maximum Penalty is prescribed for a contravention of the provision in accordance with this Act, is liable to pay a Penalty not exceeding $500, a provision of this Act provides that the person is or is not guilty of an offence.

Penalties for Companies

627. Where a Company is convicted of an offence against this Act, the penalty that the Court may impose is a fine not exceeding five times the maximum amount that, but for this section, the Court could impose as a Penalty for that offence.

Penalty notices

628.—(1) Where the Registrar has reason to believe that a person has committed an offence based on section 626 (in this section called a “prescribed offence”), the Registrar may, subject to subsection (2), give the person a notice in the Prescribed Form—

- (a) alleging that the person has committed the prescribed offence and giving the particulars in relation to the prescribed offence;
- (b) setting out the Penalty in respect of the offence; and
- (c) stating—
 - (i) in the case of a prescribed offence constituted by a failure to do a particular act or thing—
 - A. that the obligation to do the act or thing continues despite the service of the notice or the payment of the Penalty;
 - B. that if, within the period specified in the notice (being a period of at least 21 days), the person pays the Penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice and does the act or thing, no further action is taken against the person in relation to the prescribed offence; and

- C. that if, at the end of the period specified in the notice, the person has not paid the prescribed penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice or has not done the act or thing, proceedings may be instituted against the person; or
- (ii) in the case of a prescribed offence, not being an offence constituted by a failure to do a particular act or thing—
 - A. that if, within the period specified in the notice (being a period of at least 21 days), the person pays the prescribed Penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice, no further action is taken against the person in relation to the prescribed offence; and
 - B. that if, at the end of the period specified in the notice, the person has not paid the prescribed penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice, proceedings may be instituted against the person.

(2) Subsection (1) does not empower the Registrar—

- (a) to give a person more than one notice under that subsection in relation to an alleged commission by that person of a particular prescribed offence; or
- (b) to give a person a notice under that subsection in relation to a prescribed offence unless proceedings could be instituted against that person for that offence in accordance with section 632.

(3) A notice under subsection (1) may be given to a natural person either personally or by post.

(4) Where a notice under subsection (1) is given to a person in relation to a prescribed offence constituted by a failure to do a particular act or thing—

- (a) if, within the period specified in the notice, the person pays the prescribed Penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice, and does the act or thing – no proceedings may be instituted against the person in respect of the prescribed offence;
- (b) if, at the end of the period specified in the notice, the person has paid the prescribed Penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice but has not done the act or thing – no proceedings may be instituted against the person in respect of the prescribed offence, but the obligation to do that act or thing continues, and section 630 applies in relation to the continued failure to do that act or thing as if, on the day on which the person so paid the prescribed Penalty, the person had been convicted of an offence constituted by a failure to do that act or thing;
- (c) if, at the end of the period specified in the notice, the person has not paid the prescribed Penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice but had done the act or thing – proceedings may be instituted against the person in respect of the prescribed offence; or

- (d) if, at the end of the period specified in the notice, the person has not paid the prescribed Penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice and has not done the act or thing – the obligation to do that act or thing continues, and proceedings may be instituted against the person in respect of the prescribed offence.

(5) Where a notice under subsection (1) is given to a person in relation to a prescribed offence, not being an offence constituted by a failure to do a particular act or thing—

- (a) if, within the period specified in the notice, the person pays the prescribed Penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice – no proceedings may be instituted against the person in respect of the prescribed offence; or
- (b) if, at the end of the period specified in the notice, the person has not paid the prescribed Penalty to the Registrar specified in the notice – proceedings may be instituted against the person in respect of the prescribed offence.

(6) The payment of an amount by a person pursuant to a notice served on the person under this section in relation to a prescribed offence is not taken for any purpose to be an admission by that person of any liability in connection with the alleged commission of the prescribed offence.

Offences committed partly in and partly out of the jurisdiction

629. Where—

- (a) a person does or omits to do an act outside Fiji; and
- (b) if that person had done or omitted to do that act in Fiji, the person would, by reason of also having done or omitted to do an act in Fiji, have been guilty of an offence against this Act, the person is guilty of that offence.

Continuing offences

630.—(1) Where—

- (a) by or under a provision, an act is or was required to be done within a particular period or before a particular time;
- (b) failure to do the act within that period or before that time constitutes an offence; and
- (c) the act is not done within that period or before that time,

then—

- (i) the obligation to do the act continues, after that period has ended or that time has passed, and whether or not a person is or has been convicted of a primary substantive offence in relation to failure to do the act, until the act is done; and
- (ii) subsection (3) applies.

(2) Where—

- (a) by or under a provision, an act is or was required to be done but neither a period nor a time for the doing of the act is or was specified;
- (b) failure to do the act constitutes an offence; and
- (c) a person is or has been convicted of a primary substantive offence in relation to failure to do the act,

then—

- (i) the obligation to do the act continues, despite the conviction, until the act is done; and
- (ii) subsection (3) applies.

(3) Where—

- (a) at a particular time, a person is or was first convicted of an offence in relation to failure to do the act as described in subsection (1) or (2); and
- (b) the failure to do the act continued after that time,

then—

- (i) the person is, in relation to failure to do the act, guilty of a further offence in respect of so much of the period throughout which the failure to do the act continued or elapsed after that time and before the relevant day in relation to the further offence; and
- (ii) for the purposes of this Act and of the Crimes Decree 2009, the further offence is taken to be constituted by failure to do the act during so much of that period as so elapsed.

(4) Where a person is guilty, by virtue of subsection (3), of an offence in respect of the whole or a part of a particular period, the Penalty applicable to the offence is a fine of the amount obtained by multiplying $50 by the number of days in that period, or in that part of that period, as the case may be.

(5) In this section—

“primary substantive offence”, in relation to a failure to do an act, means an offence (other than an offence of which a person is or was guilty by virtue of this section) constituted by failure to do the act, or by failure to do the act within a particular period or before a particular time;

“provision” means a section, or a subsection of a section, of this Act;

“required” includes directed.

Proceedings—how taken

631.—(1) Subject to this Act, in any proceedings for an offence against this Act, any information, charge, complaint or application may be laid or made by—

- (a) the Registrar;
- (b) the Attorney-General;
- (c) the Director of Public Prosecutions; or
- (d) another person authorised in writing by the Minister to institute the proceedings.

(2) An authorisation for the purposes of subsection (1)(c), may relate to all offences, or to specified offences, against this Act.

(3) Subject to this Act, in any proceedings for an offence against a Part of this Act for which the Reserve Bank is responsible for administering under section 13(1), any information, charge, complaint or application may be laid or made by the Reserve Bank.

(4) Nothing in this section affects the operation of any other Fiji law.

Time for instituting criminal proceedings

632. Despite anything in any other law, proceedings for an offence against this Act may be instituted within the period of 5 years after the act or omission alleged to constitute the offence or, with the Minister's consent, at any later time.

Certain persons to assist in prosecutions

633.—(1) Where a prosecution in respect of an offence against this Act has been instituted, or the Registrar is of the opinion that a prosecution in respect of an offence against this Act ought to be instituted, against a person (in this section referred to as the “defendant”), the Registrar may—

- (a) if the defendant is a natural person – require any person who is or was a partner, employee or agent of the defendant; or
- (b) if the defendant is a Company – require any person who is or was an Officer, employee or agent of the defendant, to assist in the prosecution, and the person who is so required must give all assistance in connection with the prosecution that that person is reasonably able to give.

(2) The Registrar must not make such a requirement as is mentioned in subsection (1) of a person who, in the opinion of the Registrar, is or is likely to be a defendant in the proceedings or is or has been such a person's lawyer.

(3) If a person to whom subsection (1) relates fails to give assistance as required by that section, the person contravenes this section and, without affecting any penalty to which the person may be liable for the contravention, the Court may, on the application of the Registrar, order the person to comply with the requirement within such time, and in such manner, as the Court orders.

(4) In this section, agent, in relation to the defendant, includes a Financial Institution of the defendant and a person engaged as an Auditor by the defendant, whether that person is an employee or an Officer of the defendant or not.

Contempt

634. Nothing in this Act effects the powers of the Court in relation to the punishment of contempt of court.

Orders of the Court

635. The Court may rescind, vary or discharge any order made by it under this Act or suspend the operation of such order.

Division 2—Civil Consequences of Contravening a Civil Penalty Provision

Declarations of contravention 636.—(1) If a Court is satisfied that a person has contravened a provision in one of the following Parts—

- (a) Division 3 of Part 10;
- (b) Part 18;
- (c) Part 32;
- (d) Division 5 of Part 38;
- (e) Part 42;
- (f) Division 3 of Part 43

(called “Civil Penalty Provisions”), it must make a declaration of contravention.

(2) A declaration of contravention must specify the following—

- (a) the Court that made the declaration;
- (b) the Civil Penalty Provision that was contravened;
- (c) the person who contravened the provision; and
- (d) the conduct that constituted the contravention.

Declaration of contravention is conclusive evidence

637. A declaration of contravention is conclusive evidence of the matters referred to in section 636(2).

Pecuniary penalty orders

638.—(1) A Court may order a person to pay the Registrar a pecuniary penalty in respect of each contravention of up to $200,000 (in this Division called a “pecuniary penalty order”) if—

- (a) a declaration of contravention by the person has been made under section 636; and

(b) the contravention—

- (i) materially prejudices the interests of the Company or Managed Investment Scheme, or its Members; or
- (ii) materially prejudices the Company's ability to pay its creditors; or
- (iii) is serious.

(2) The penalty is a civil debt payable to the Registrar.

(3) The Registrar or the Government may enforce the order as if it were an order made in civil proceedings against the person to recover a debt due by the person.

(4) The debt arising from the order is taken to be a judgment debt.

Compensation orders

639.—(1) A Court may order a person to compensate a Company or Managed Investment Scheme for damage suffered by the Company or Managed Investment Scheme if the damage resulted from the contravention (in this section called a “compensation order”). The compensation order must specify the amount of the compensation.

(2) In determining the damage suffered by the Company or Managed Investment Scheme for the purposes of making a compensation order, include profits made by any person resulting from the contravention or the offence.

(3) In determining the damage suffered by the Managed Investment Scheme for the purposes of making a compensation order, include any diminution in the value of the Property of the Managed Investment Scheme.

(4) If the Manager of the Managed Investment Scheme is ordered to compensate the scheme, the Manager must transfer the amount of the compensation to the Property of the Managed Investment Scheme. If anyone else is ordered to compensate the Managed Investment Scheme, the Manager may recover the compensation on behalf of the Managed Investment Scheme.

(5) A compensation order may be enforced as if it were a judgment of the Court.

Who may apply for a declaration or order

640.—(1) The Registrar may apply for a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order or a compensation order.

(2) The Company or the Manager of a Managed Investment Scheme may apply for a compensation order.

(3) The Company or the Manager of a Managed Investment Scheme may intervene in an application for a declaration of contravention or a pecuniary penalty order in relation to the Company or Managed Investment Scheme. The Company or the Manager of a Managed Investment Scheme is entitled to be heard on all matters other than whether the declaration or order should be made.

(4) No person may apply for a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order or a compensation order unless permitted by this section.

Time limit for application for a declaration or order

641. Proceedings for a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order, or a compensation order, may be started no later than 5 years after the contravention.

Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings

642. The Court must not make a declaration of contravention or a pecuniary penalty order against a person for a contravention if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.

Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

643.—(1) Proceedings for a declaration of contravention or pecuniary penalty order against a person are stayed if—

- (a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person for an offence; and
- (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

(2) The proceedings for the declaration or order may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings for the declaration or order are dismissed.

Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

644. Criminal proceedings may be started against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a Civil Penalty Provision regardless of whether—

- (a) a declaration of contravention has been made against the person; or
- (b) a pecuniary penalty order has been made against the person; or
- (c) a compensation order has been made against the person; or
- (d) the person has been disqualified from managing a corporation under Part 12.

Evidence given in proceedings for penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

645.—(1) Evidence of information given or evidence of production of documents by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if—

- (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against the individual for a contravention of a Civil Penalty Provision (whether or not the order was made); and
- (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially same as the conduct that was claimed to constitute the contravention.

(2) However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the pecuniary penalty order.

The Registrar requiring person to assist

646.—(1) This section applies in addition to section 633.

(2) The Registrar may require a person to give all reasonable assistance in connection with—

- (a) an application for a declaration of contravention or a pecuniary penalty order; or
- (b) criminal proceedings for an offence against this Act.

(3) The Registrar can require the person to assist in connection with an application for a declaration or order if, and only if—

- (a) it appears to the Registrar that someone other than the person required to assist may have contravened a Civil Penalty Provision; and
- (b) the Registrar suspects or believes that the person required to assist can give information relevant to the application.

(4) The Registrar can require the person to assist in connection with criminal proceedings if, and only if—

- (a) it appears to the Registrar that the person required to assist is unlikely to be a defendant in the proceedings; and
- (b) the person required to assist is, in relation to a person who is or should be a defendant in the proceedings—
 - (i) an employee or agent (including a Financial Institution or Auditor) of the other person;
 - (ii) if the other person is a Company – an Officer or employee of the other person; or
 - (iii) if the other person is an individual – a partner of the other person.

(5) The Registrar can require the person to assist regardless of whether—

- (a) an application for the declaration or penalty order has actually been made; or
- (b) criminal proceedings for the offence have actually begun.

(6) The person cannot be required to assist if they are or have been a lawyer for—

- (a) in an application for a declaration or penalty order – the person suspected of the contravention; or
- (b) in criminal proceedings – a defendant or likely defendant in the proceedings.

(7) The requirement to assist must be given in writing.

(8) If a person is required to assist under this section and fails to do so, that person contravenes this section.

Division 3—Offences in Relation to the Market (other than insider trading)

Interpretation

647. In this Part, “financial market” means a market for Securities in Fiji, whether operated by a third party or not and including, but not limited, to a Securities Exchange.

- (a) of active trading in Securities in or on a financial market; or
- (b) with respect to the market for, or the price for trading in, Securities in or on a financial market.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person is taken to have created a false or misleading appearance of active trading in Listed Securities on a financial market if the person—

- (c) an agreement between any or all members of the Company and the Director.

(2) If the Director was appointed to represent the interests of particular members or Debenture Holders, the resolution to remove the Director does not take effect until a replacement to represent their interests has been appointed.

(3) Notice of intention to move the resolution must be given to the Company at least 2 months before the meeting is to be held. However, if the Company calls a meeting after the notice of intention is given under this subsection, the meeting may pass the resolution even though the meeting is held less than 2 months after the notice of intention is given.

(5) The Director is entitled to put their case to members by—

- (a) giving the Company a written statement for circulation to members; and

(6) The written statement is to be circulated by the Company to members by—

- (a) sending a copy to everyone to whom notice of the meeting is sent if there is time to do so; or
- (b) if there is not time to comply with paragraph (a) – having the statement distributed to members attending the meeting and read out at the meeting before the resolution is voted on.

(7) The Director's statement does not have to be circulated to members if it is more than 1,000 words long or defamatory.

(8) If a person is appointed to replace a Director removed under this section, the time at which—

- (a) the replacement Director; or
- (b) any other Director,

PART 7—MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Calling of meetings of members by a Director

22. A Director may call a meeting of the Company's members whether the Company is a Private or Public Company, Listed or not Listed.

Circulating resolutions of Private Companies with more than one Member

30.—(1) This section applies to resolutions of the members of Private Companies that the Companies Act or the Company's Articles of Association requires or permits to be passed at a General Meeting. It does not apply to a resolution under section 427 to remove an Auditor.

(2) A Company may pass a resolution without a General Meeting being held if all the members entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document. Each member of a joint membership must sign.

(3) Separate copies of a document may be used for signing by Members if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.

(4) The resolution is passed when the last Member signs.

- (b) the right to receive dividends;
- (c) in a winding up, the right to participate equally in the distribution of the assets of the Company (both capital and surplus), subject only to any amounts unpaid on the Share.

Capital reductions and Buy-Backs

33. Subject to the Companies Act, the Company may undertake a capital reduction or a Buy-Back on terms and at times determined by the Directors in their discretion.

Commission and brokerage

34. Any brokerage or commission which may be paid by the Company may be made in cash, by the issue of Shares, by the grant of options over Shares, or by a combination of any of those methods or otherwise.

Trusts not recognised

35.—(1) Except as required by law or as otherwise provided by this Articles of Association, the Company will not recognise any person as holding a Share on trust and the Company will not recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest or any other right in respect of a Share except the registered holder's absolute right of ownership.

(2) Subject to the other clauses, this clause applies even if the Company has notice of the relevant trust, interest or right.

Right to Share certificate

36.—(1) Subject to the Companies Act and the conditions of issue of any Shares or any class of Shares—

- (a) every member is entitled free of charge to one certificate for all Shares registered in its name; and
- (b) a member may request several certificates in reasonable denominations for different portions of its holding.

(2) Subject to the Companies Act and the conditions of issue of any Shares or any class of Shares, joint holders are entitled to a single certificate in their joint names in respect of each portion of their holding. The certificate will be sent to the member whose name appears first in the Register.

(3) Subject to the Companies Act, the Company must issue a replacement certificate for Shares in accordance with the Companies Act if—

- (a) the holder of the Shares is entitled to a certificate for those Shares;
- (b) satisfactory evidence has been received by the Company that the certificate for Shares previously issued has been stolen, lost or destroyed and has not been pledged, Charged, sold or otherwise disposed of; and
- (c) the member has undertaken in writing to the Company to return the certificate to the Company if it is found or received by the member.

(4) Every certificate for Shares must be issued and despatched in accordance with the Companies Act.

Replacement of certificate

37. The Directors may order worn out or defaced certificates to be cancelled and replaced by new certificates.

PART 11—DIVIDENDS

Payment of dividends

38.—(1) Provided that the Company is Solvent, the Directors may, out of the profits of the Company—

- (a) declare that the Company pay interim or final dividends; or
- (b) determine that dividends are payable by the Company and fix the amount and time for and method of payment.

(2) Subject to the Companies Act, if the Directors determine that a dividend is payable under sub-clause (1)(b), they may amend or revoke the resolution to pay the dividend at any time before the date fixed for payment.

Other provisions about paying dividends

39.—(1) Provided that the Company is Solvent, the Directors may determine that a dividend is payable and fix—

- (a) the amount; and
- (b) the time for payment; and
- (c) the method of payment including the payment of cash, the issue of Shares, the grant of options and the transfer of assets.

(2) Interest is not payable on a dividend.

Dividend rights

40. Subject to the terms on which Shares in a Private Company are on issue, the Directors may pay dividends as they see fit.

Interest

41. The Company must not pay interest on a dividend.

Reserves

42.—(1) The Directors may set aside out of profits an amount by way of reserves as they think appropriate to pay a dividend.

(2) The Directors may apply the reserves for any purpose for which profits may be properly applied.

(3) Pending any such application, the Directors may invest or use the reserves in the business of the Company or in other investments as they think fit.

(4) The Directors may carry forward any undistributed profits without transferring them to a reserve.

Dividend entitlement

43.—(1) Subject to the rights of persons (if any) entitled to Shares with special rights as to dividend, any dividend must be paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the Shares in respect of which the dividend is paid.

(2) All dividends must be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the Shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if a Share is issued on terms providing that it will rank for dividend as from a particular date, that Share ranks for dividend accordingly.

(3) An amount paid or credited as paid on a Share in advance of a call is not to be taken as paid or credited as paid for the purposes of sub-clause (1) and (2).

(4) A transfer of Shares does not pass the right to any dividend declared or determined to be payable in respect of those Shares before the registration of a transfer.

Deductions from dividends

44. The Directors may deduct from a dividend payable to a member all sums presently payable by the member to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to Shares in the Company.

Distribution of assets

45.—(1) The Directors may resolve that a dividend (interim or final) will be paid wholly or partly by the transfer or distribution of specific assets, including fully paid Shares in, or Debentures of, any other Company.

(2) If a difficulty arises in making a transfer or distribution of specific assets, the Directors may—

- (a) deal with the difficulty as they consider expedient;
- (b) fix the value of all or any part of the specific assets for the purposes of the distribution;
- (c) determine that cash will be paid to any members on the basis of the fixed value in order to adjust the rights of all the members; and
- (d) vest any such specific assets in trustees as the Directors consider expedient.

(3) If a transfer or distribution of specific assets to a particular member or members is illegal or, in the Directors' opinion, impracticable, the Directors may make a cash payment to the member or members on the basis of the cash amount of the dividend instead of the transfer or distribution of specific assets.

Payment

46.—(1) Any dividend or other money payable in respect of Shares may be paid by—

- (a) cheque sent through the mail directed to—
 - (i) the address of the member shown in the Register or to the address of the joint holder of Shares shown first in the Register; or
 - (ii) an address which the member or joint holders has in writing notified the Company as the address to which dividends should be sent;

- (b) electronic funds transfer to an account with a bank or other Financial Institution nominated by the member and acceptable to the Company; or
- (c) any other means determined by the Directors.

(2) Any joint holder may give an effectual receipt for any dividend or other money paid in respect of Shares held by holders jointly.

Capitalisation of profits

47.—(1) The Directors may resolve—

- (a) to capitalise profits and apply the sum capitalised; and
- (b) that the sum be applied, in any of the ways mentioned in sub-clause (2), for the benefit of members, or persons who have applied for Shares, in the proportions determined by the Directors.

(2) The ways in which a sum may be applied for the benefit of members under sub-clause (1) are—

- (a) in paying up any amounts unpaid on Shares held or to be held by members;
- (b) in paying up in full Shares or Debentures to be issued to members as fully paid; or
- (c) partly as mentioned in paragraph (a) and partly as mentioned in paragraph (b).

(3) The Directors must do all things necessary to give effect to a resolution under sub-clause (1) and, in particular, to the extent necessary to adjust the rights of the members among themselves, may—

- (a) issue fractional certificates or make cash payments in cases where Shares or debentures become issuable in fractions; and
- (b) authorise any person to make, on behalf of all the members entitled to a benefit on the capitalisation, an agreement with the Company providing for—
 - (i) the issue to them, credited as fully paid up, of any such further Shares or Debentures; or
 - (ii) the payment by the Company on their behalf of the amount or any part of the amount remaining unpaid on their existing Shares by the application of their respective proportions of the sum resolved to be capitalised, and any agreement made under the authority of paragraph (b) is effective and binding on all the members concerned.

PART 12—CALLS

Calls

48.—(1) Subject to the Companies Act and the terms on which partly paid Shares are issued, the Directors may make calls on the holders of the Shares for any money unpaid on them.

(2) A call is made when the resolution of the Directors authorising it is passed.

(3) The Directors may require it to be paid by instalments.

(4) The Directors may revoke or postpone a call before its due date for payment.

(5) At least 10 Business Days before the due date for payment of a call, the Company must send to members on whom the call is made a notice specifying—

(a) the amount of the call;

(b) the due date for payment; and

(c) the place for payment.

(6) A member to whom notice of a call is given in accordance with this clause must pay to the Company the amount called in accordance with the notice.

(7) Failure to send a notice of a call to any member or the non-receipt of a notice by any member does not invalidate the call.

(8) Joint holders of Shares are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of their Shares.

Instalments

49. If—

(a) the Directors require a call to be paid by instalments; or

(b) an amount becomes payable by the terms of issue of Shares, or at a time or in circumstances specified in the terms of issue,

then—

(i) every instalment or the amount payable under the terms of issue of Shares is payable as if it were a call made by the Directors and as if they had given notice of it; and

(ii) the consequences of late payment or non-payment of an instalment or the amount payable under the terms of issue of Shares are the same as the consequences of late payment or non-payment of a call.

Interest and expenses on calls

50. If an amount called is not paid on or before the due date, the person liable to pay the amount must also pay—

(a) interest on the amount from the due date to the time of actual payment at a rate determined by the Directors (not exceeding 20% per annum); and

- (b) all expenses incurred by the Company as a consequence of the non-payment, but the Directors may waive payment of the interest and expenses in whole or in part.

Recovery of amounts due

51. On the hearing of any action for the recovery of money due for any call, proof that—

- (a) the name of the person sued was, when the call was made, entered in the Register as a holder or the holder of Shares in respect of which the call was made;
- (b) the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the Directors' minute book; and
- (c) notice of the call was given to the person sued,

will be conclusive evidence of the debt.

Differentiation

52. The Directors may, on the issue of Shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

Payment of calls in advance

53. The Directors may accept from a member the whole or part of the amount unpaid on a Share before the amount accepted has been called.

PART 13—LIEN AND FORFEITURE

Lien

54.—(1) The Company has a first and paramount lien on every partly paid Share for all money—

- (a) due and unpaid to the Company at a fixed time, in respect of the Share;
- (b) presently payable by the holder of the Share, or the holder's estate, to the Company in respect of the Share; or
- (c) which the Company is required by law to pay in respect of the Share.

(2) The Company's lien extends to all dividends payable in respect of the Share.

(3) Unless the Directors determine otherwise, the registration of a transfer of a Share operates as a waiver of the Company's lien on the Share.

(4) The Directors may declare a Share to be wholly or partly exempt from a lien.

(5) If any law for the time being of any country, state or place imposes or purports to impose an immediate or contingent liability on the Company to make any payment or authorises a taxing authority or Government official to require the Company to make payment in respect of Shares or dividends or other moneys accruing or due to the member—

- (a) the member or, if the member is deceased, the member's legal personal representative, indemnifies the Company in respect of any such payment or liability; and
- (b) subject to the Companies Act, the Company—
 - (i) has a lien on the Shares, dividends and other moneys payable in respect of the Shares, whether the Shares are held by the member solely or jointly with another person or by the person's legal personal representative, in respect of any payment made or liability incurred by the Company, together with reasonable expenses and interest on any payment made by the Company at a rate to be fixed by the Directors not exceeding 20% per annum from the date of payment by the Company to the date of repayment by the member;
 - (ii) may set off amounts so paid by the Company against amounts payable by the Company to the member as dividends or otherwise; and
 - (iii) may recover as a debt due from the member or the member's legal personal representative the amount of all payments made by the Company together with reasonable expenses and interest at the rate and for the period referred to in sub-clause (5)(b)(i).

Lien sale

55. If—

- (a) the Company has a lien on a Share for money presently payable;
- (b) the Company has given the member or the member's executors or administrators (as the case may be) holding the Share written notice demanding payment of the money; and
- (c) the member fails to pay all of the money demanded, then 14 or more days after giving the notice, the Directors may sell the Share in any manner determined by them.

Forfeiture notice

56.—(1) The Directors may at any time after a call or instalment becomes payable and remains unpaid by a member, serve a notice on the member requiring the member to pay all or any of the following—

- (a) the unpaid amount;
- (b) any interest that has accrued; and
- (c) all expenses incurred by the Company as a consequence of the non-payment.

(2) The notice under sub-clause (1) must—

- (a) specify a day (not earlier than 14 days after the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice must be made; and
- (b) state that if a member does not comply with the notice, the Shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

Forfeiture

57.—(1) If a member does not comply with a notice served under clause (56), then any or all of the Shares in respect of which the notice was given may be forfeited under a resolution of the Directors.

(2) Unpaid dividends in respect of forfeited Shares will also be forfeited.

(3) On forfeiture, Shares become the Property of the Company and forfeited Shares may be sold, disposed of, or cancelled on terms determined by the Directors.

(4) The Directors may, at any time before a forfeited Share is sold, disposed of or cancelled, annul the forfeiture of the Share on conditions determined by them.

(5) Promptly after a Share has been forfeited—

- (a) notice of the forfeiture must be given to the member in whose name the Share was registered immediately before its forfeiture; and
- (b) the forfeiture and its date must be noted in the Register.

(6) Omission or neglect to give notice of or to note the forfeiture as specified in sub-clause (5) will not invalidate a forfeiture.

Liability of former Member

58.—(1) The interest of a person who held Shares which are forfeited is extinguished but the former member remains liable to pay—

- (a) all money (including interest and expenses) that was payable by the member to the Company at the date of forfeiture in respect of the forfeited Shares; and
- (b) interest from the date of forfeiture until payment at a rate determined by the Directors (not exceeding 20% per annum).

(2) A former members liability to the Company ceases if and when the Company receives payment in full of all money (including interest and expenses) payable by the former member in respect of the Shares.

Disposal of Shares

59.—(1) The Company may—

- (a) receive the consideration (if any) given for a forfeited Share on any sale or disposition of the Share, or a Share sold under a lien sale; and

(b) execute a transfer of the Share in favour of a person to whom the Share is sold or disposed of.

(2) The purchaser of the Share—

(a) is not bound to check the regularity of the sale or the application of the purchase price;

(b) obtains title to the Share despite any irregularity in the sale; and

(c) will not be subject to complaint or remedy by the former holder of the Share in respect of the purchase.

(3) A statement signed by a Director and a secretary that the Share has been regularly forfeited and sold or re-issued, or regularly sold without forfeiture to enforce a lien, is conclusive evidence of the matters stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the Share.

(4) The net proceeds of any sale made to enforce a lien or on forfeiture must be applied by the Company in the following order—

(a) in payment of the costs of the sale;

(b) in payment of all amounts secured by the lien or all money that was payable in respect of the forfeited Share; and

(c) in payment of any surplus to the former member whose Share was sold.

PART14—TRANSFER OF SHARES

Transfer

60.—(1) Subject to this Articles of Association, a member may transfer the Shares held by that member.

(2) Shares may be transferred by—

(a) a written transfer instrument in any usual or common form; or

(b) any other form approved by the Directors.

(3) A written transfer instrument referred to in sub-clause (2) must be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferee.

(4) A transferor of Shares remains the holder of the Shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of the Shares.

(5) A transfer of Shares does not pass the right to any unpaid dividends or dividends declared on the Shares until such registration.

Transfer procedure

61.—(1) Subject to clause 63, the Directors are not required to register a transfer of Shares unless—

- (a) the transfer is left at the Company's Registered Office;
- (b) the transfer is accompanied by a certificate for the Shares dealt with in the transfer, unless the Directors waive production of the certificate on receiving satisfactory evidence of the loss or destruction of the certificate; and
- (c) the Directors have been provided with any further information they reasonably require to establish the right of the person transferring the Shares to make the transfer.

(2) Except where the issue of a certificate is to replace a lost or destroyed certificate, the Company must register all registrable transfer forms and issue certificates without charge if required to do so under the Companies Act.

Registration of transfers

62.—(1) A person transferring Shares remains the holder of the Shares until the transfer is registered and the name of the person to whom they are being transferred is entered in the register of members in respect of the Shares.

(2) The Directors are not required to register a transfer of Shares in the Company unless—

- (a) the transfer and any Share certificate have been Lodged at the Company's Registered Office;
- (b) any fee payable on registration of the transfer has been paid; and
- (c) the Directors have been given any further information they reasonably require to establish the right of the person transferring the Shares to make the transfer.

(3) The Directors may refuse to register a transfer of Shares in the Company if—

- (a) the Shares are not fully paid; or
- (b) the Company has a lien on the Shares.

(4) The Directors may suspend registration of transfers of Shares in the Company at the times and for the periods they determine. The periods of suspension must not exceed 30 days in any one calendar year.

Right to refuse registration

63.—(1) The Directors may in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason decline to register any transfer of Shares.

(2) The Directors may in their absolute discretion refuse to register any transfer of Shares on which stamp duty or other taxes of a similar nature are payable but unpaid.

Pre-emption for existing Members on transfer of Shares in a Private Company

64.—(1) Before issuing Shares of a particular Class, the Directors of a Private Company must offer them to the existing holders of Shares of that Class. As far as practicable, the number of Shares offered to each member must be in proportion to the number of Shares of that Class that they already hold.

(2) To make the offer, the Directors must give the members a statement setting out the terms of the offer, including—

- (a) the number of Shares offered; and
- (b) the period for which it will remain open.
